

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB OF ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

2018 SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

Thank you for your interest in the International Women's Club Scholarship. This year's Scholarship is open to all women of Antiguan nationality in pursuit of academic degrees or coursework in the fields of nursing, pharmacy, x-ray technician, education and economic development, excluding legal and accounting fields. This coursework, including on-line degrees must be pursued in institutions located in Antigua and Barbuda or within the Caribbean Region. Recipients of this award are expected to return to Antigua upon completion of their studies and apply their education towards the betterment of the nation. Awards are based on both academic excellence and need. Applicants must begin their academic programme in 2018, or already be an enrolled student in good standing. Applicants must not have received more than one (1) prior IWC Scholarship. Applicants will be contacted for an interview upon receipt of completed applications. All applications are confidential and become property of the International Women's Club.

The International Women's Club Scholarship is meant to act as a supplemental award to assist in the cost of tuition or other opportunity costs associated with higher education. Funds will be distributed directly to the institution or school. Awards in the past have ranged from $500EC to $8,000EC. Each applicant must be available for an in person interview, without exception.

No application will be considered if incomplete or received after the closure date of 31 May, 2018.

To be complete, an application must include a completed application form, two (2) academic letters of reference, one (1) page typewritten essay, the last two (2) official academic transcripts, your letter of acceptance including course fees and a passport size head shot.

Applications should be sent to:
